

I am asking that the FCC not interfere with Indiana's no-call policy. I used to receive up to 10 calls every day, now I am getting none, which is a relief after I have worked all day, and don't care to be bothered by someone I don't want to talk to.